Rutgers University was chartered as Queens College in 1766 and changed to Rutgers in 1825. It was the eighth college founded in the American Colonies. Queens Building shown on this card was erected in 1808 and is the oldest building on the campus.

LYNN H. BOYER, JR., WILDWOOD, N. J.

GENUINE CURTEICH-CHICAGO "C. T. ART-COLORTONE" POST CARD (REG. U. S. PAT. OFF.)

POST CARD

PLACE
STAMP
HERE

NB-7—Kirkpatrick Chapel and Queens Building, Rutgers University, New Brunswick, N. J.

1B-H1363